HATE CRIMES INVESTIGATION An Online Course Certified by P.O.S.T.

PURPOSE: This course is available entirely online and will prepare patrol officers, detectives, and investigators to properly and effectively investigate a hate crime as defined by California State Law, Federal Law and most recent POST Hate Crimes Investigation Guidelines.

Students will learn hate crimes laws including the most recent federal law, hate crime trends, how to interview and support victims, suspect typology and interrogation, case management, and community and media relations. This course has weekly reading assignments, learning activities, a final exam, and a course project. All 8 modules must be completed to receive credit.

Students can complete the entire course over a 6 week period from any computer with Internet access. The schedule is flexible and there are no specific meeting times. It is ideal for shift workers and those who have irregular work schedules.

Students will earn 24 hours of POST CPT credit for passing this course.
